

Self-Help Credit Union Invests in Your Community

With a minimum deposit of $500 to open a Specialty CD (Term Certificate) — your choice of "Women & Children," "Green," or "GoLocal" — you will help finance local green businesses, community economic development projects, women, and minority mortgage borrowers across Western North Carolina.

Bringing It Home

This fall, our third annual Bringing It Home Conference will focus on spurring business and community development right here in Western North Carolina.

Community development credit unions leverage the money you deposit to responsibly lend to low and moderate income individuals and communities who have less access to traditional capital — all while providing you with both a market-rate and social return! Each account is federally insured up to $250,000 by the National Credit Union Association.

Self-Help Credit Union is a member-owned cooperative credit union serving more than 18,800 members in Western North Carolina. A deposit in Self-Help Credit Union is one of the highest impact investments you can make. We have been investing in the businesses you care about, with more than 9,470 loans totaling $143 million dollars lent in Western North Carolina since 1974.

Go to www.self-help.org to purchase a CD, join Self-Help online, or locate one of our local branches in your area.
